Hi Mike,

Sorry we missed each other the other day. Our Master CUP at Chapman is scheduled to expire in April of 2018 and we submitted our new application last month to LA Planning. I was hoping to set up a time with you next week to review our application as we are making a few changes to the current CUP. If you think it makes sense for us to do an additional presentation to the WCBID, we would be happy to do that as well.

Can you send me some times next week that will work for you? Other than Thursday, my week is looking pretty good. Attendees will be be our attorney, Noel Hyun, and myself.

I'm in Denver today and tomorrow, so please call my cell if you want to discuss.

Thanks,

Mike
